

I Am Malala

Part 2: Notes and Comprehension Questions

While you read...

Respond to what you're reading by writing in the post-it notes below. When you're finished, think about Literal, Inferential, and Critical Responses and label what you have written.

After you read...

- Add Vocabulary to Your Notebook
- Add New Character Names to Your Notebook
- Respond to the following questions with complete sentences and evidence. Consider your use of literal, inferential, and critical responses.

Chapter 6: Radio Mullah

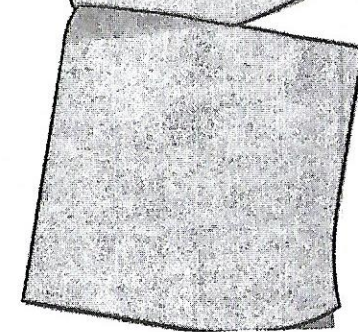

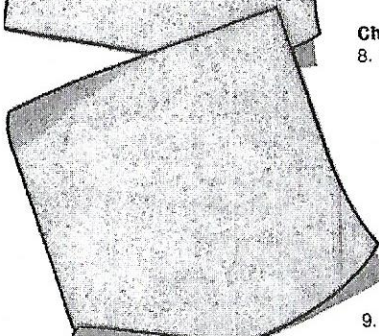

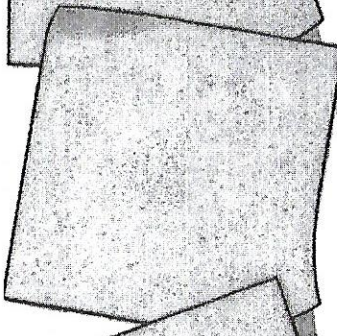

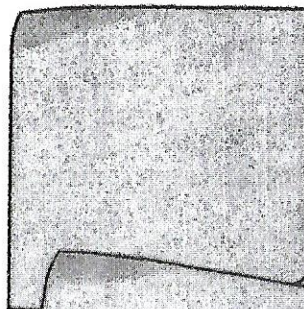

1. What does Malala argue is the reason why so many women believed what the radio mullah was saying?
2. Why did so many men and women initially listen to the mullah? Are there any comparisons that you can make to history or to today?
3. Malala informs us that the mullah on the radio is named _____
4. What information does Malala's father learn about Maulana Fazzullah?

Chapter 7: The Taliban in Swat

5. Think about the title of chapter 7. What details does Malala give to support that the Taliban was in Swat. You may list these rather than write them in complete sentences.

While you read...

Respond to what you're reading by writing in the post-it notes below.

After you read...

Chapter 8: No One Is Safe

6. We finally learn who Benazir Bhutto is. This name should be familiar because of the timeline we completed at the start of the autobiography. Who is she? Why does Malala choose to include her in this text?

Chapter 9: Candy from the Sky

7. How has Malala's life changed since the beginning of the book? For example, consider the difference between Malala's after school routine before the Taliban and after the Taliban.

Chapter 10: 2008: What Terrorism Feels Like

8. What does Malala describe is the difference between terrorism and war?
9. In what ways does Terrorism effect her daily routines? Family?